Red Wines

	Price	Wine Club
Gamay, 2019 ..... Muse Gamay is a perfect summer wine. Fermented in stainless steel and bottled young, it is a bright, fresh wine. With a pretty pale garnet color it is lighter in body than a traditional red wine aged in oak barrels with notes of sour cherry. Try it with food as an alternative to rosé - goes well with pizza, pasta, hamburgers and other informal meals. Try it slightly chilled (45 minutes in the refrigerator, like Beaujolais) as a great deck and patio wine. ABV 11.9%.	$16.00	$12.80
Pichet, 2019 ..... Pichet 2019 is a light red table wine, un-oaked and perfect for summer quaffing. Primarily Cabernet Franc, it is a great table wine. The word Pichet is French for pitcher or carafe and indeed Pichet is just what you would find on the table at a French bistro. Serve it slightly chilled.	$18.00	$14.40
Cabernet Franc, 2017 ..... This is a plush wine of depth and complexity from a great vintage. Aged for over two years in French barrels this Franc is a tribute to the gentle marriage of fine-grained oak and red wine. Its tannins are well-integrated and frame the wine perfectly. Its flavors meld and flow seamlessly. A wine to think about while drinking, as it will insistently remind you. ABV 13.5%.	$32.00	$25.60
Petit Verdot, 2016 ..... Made exclusively of Petit Verdot grapes, this wine has strong cherry notes and was aged in French oak barrels. An uncomplicated, robust varietal that pairs well with hearty red meat stews, and similar straightforward, rustic foods. ABV 13.9%	$32.00	$25.60
Clio, 2016 ..... Is a Bordeaux style wine in a classic blend of 29% of Cabernet Franc, 21% Cabernet Sauvignon 25% Petit Verdot, and 25% of Merlot and Malbec. This wine is aged for three years in 30% new, 50% once-filled and 20% neutral French oak barrels. It has a pronounced Medoc quality that complements a wide range of cuisine (as a good Bordeaux should). ABV 14.3%.	$34.00	$27.20
